Skins Game: There is an optional Skins Game during the Winter Tour for all players. This is a [Gross Skins Game] with one purse. Fee: $10.00 per player Par could win a Gross Skin.

Closest to Pin Game: These is an optional Closest to the pin Game at each event. This gives each player a chance at two Closest to the Pins. Fee: $5.00 per player [$2.50 goes to one CP, and $2.50 to the other].

Individual Tourney Fees: Each player must pay the course his Green/Cart Fee. Then you must pay the director at the course your Skins Fee, and Tournament Fee.

Tournament Fees: Each player must pay $15.00 dollars at each tournament, and $30.00 dollars at each two day or 27 hole event. This money is for the tournament prize and Season Ending Prizes. Players must pay this at the course to the director.

Format: The format during the Winter Tour is 2-Man Best Ball; each player plays his ball thru the hole. The team score will result in taking the best score [Gross & Net] for each hole during the tournament, no need to calculate the net score the computer will do that. MAX. score is double par on any hole.

Partners: Players have selected partners, and due to an six-event Winter Tour season, any team can have a stand-in player for one tournament during the season.

Handicaps: All players have a Winter Tour Handicap using all of the 2010 Regular Tour Handicaps

Divisions

- Gross: All-Teams will be entered in this Division using the Gross scores on each hole during the tournaments.

- Net: All-Teams will be entered in this Division using the Net scores with the Handicaps given to each player.

- Prizes: At the end of the Winter Tour Season the Top-3 in each Division will receive GIFT CARDS. No team can place in both divisions; you take your best placement. Payouts depend on number of players at each event – adding up to the end of the season. Both division Champion Teams will receive a Crystal Trophy. Individual Tournament Winners will also receive a GIFT CARD.
